To Whom It May Concern:

Korte and Luitjohan Contractors was the general contractor for the complete renovation/addition of our dental office. We would highly recommend them for anyone contemplating a similar project. We found them to be very conscientious in every phase of the planning and execution of the project. One of the most important aspects that they were able to provide for us was to plan the phases of construction so that we were able to keep our normal hours of operation. They were very good at anticipating our needs and very quick with resolutions to any concerns. Their bid on the project was extremely competitive without sacrificing quality. We would definitely work with them again in the future.
